It further shows that her husband, a Latvian, died in a hospital in the United States. She was born on October 12, 1906 at Riga, Latvia. She arrived in the United States in 1934 accompanied by her husband, Mr. A. Reizen, from the latter divorced. Following the divorce she became a neighbour of W.A. Kotinsky, a well known officer by occupation with whom she cohabited until he married a certain Rosentour-Linoff. For the past seven years she has worked for the greenhouse, millinery and dress making, 790 Casseling Well Road in the capacity of a representative and export sales agent. In connection with this work she is known to have undertaken numerous trips to various places in China as well as to Hong Kong, Macao and Saigon.

On November 11, 1937 she was issued by the Public Safety Bureau Pass No. 107703/441691 good for travelling to Hongkong, Saigon and Japan. On March 22, 1937 she returned to Shanghai from Singapore in the s.s. "Cathay". In the Aliens' Passport Declaration Form she filled up on this occasion she states that she has no occupation and that she has returned to Shanghai from a pleasure trip.

Upon arrival here she stayed at the Embassy Hotel for one day. Her present address has not yet been located.

Nothing detrimental is known in this office regarding this person.

202-C

With reference to the attached communication from the Netherlands Consulate-General, dated November 11, 1935, on the subject of Mrs. N. D. Feigen and Mrs. Greenhouse, enquiries show that:

- 1) Mrs. Nadejda Davidovna Feigen, Russian, was born on October 18, 1898, at Goldingen, Latvia. In 1924 she came to Shanghai from Germany accompanied by her husband Mr. A. Feigen whom she later divorced. Following the divorce she became a paramour of E. A. Hotimsky, a gold bar broker by occupation, with whom she cohabited until he got married to a certain Rosentour-Minkoff. For the last six years, Mrs. Feigen has worked for Mme. Greenhouse as representative of her "salon-de-modes" and also as outport sales agent. In connection with this work, she undertook numerous trips to Hongkong, Macao and various places in China.
- 2) Mrs. Lea Shita Elisabeth Zalmanoff nee Greenhouse, Polish Jewess, was born on October 7, 1900 at Vilno, Poland. She came to Shanghai sometime in 1924 and soon afterwards married one A. Levenspiel, a Russian Jew, who was considered a man of doubtful reputation with strong socialistic tendencies. She divorced him in February 1930, and married Anatoly A. Zalmanoff, Russian Jew, a merchant, who at that time was working as a musician.

Mrs. Zalmanoff is a very wealthy woman and is proprietress of a Dressmaking & Millinery Store at No. 790 Bubbling Well Road, and also of the "Femina" Silk Store, No. 940 B'Well Rd.

There is nothing detrimental known to this office

No. 3688.

SHANGHAI, 11th November 1935.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I have received an application for a visé for admission into the Netherlands Indies from Mrs. Nadia Davidovna Feigen, born at Goldingen (Latvia), 18 October 1898, divorced wife of Mr. Feigen, a former Russian subject.

Mrs. Feigen intends to proceed to Java as representative of Madame Greenhouse (Me Vacheron), who has a milliner's shop at 790 Bubbling Well Road and who desires Mrs. Feigen to visit her business relations in Singapore, Batavia, Semarang and Soerabaia, holding herself responsible for all the expenses of Mrs. Feigen's trip.

Mrs. Feigen holds at present a passport issued by the local Bureau of Public Safety on May 10th 1935 (No. 10834) which is only good for travelling in China and which I advised her to change for one for travelling abroad. Her private address is at Bubbling Well Road 778, Denis Apt. 54.

I should be much obliged to you if you would let me know whether anything is known against her or Mrs. Greenhouse from a political or moral point of view.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
